IN THE SUPREME COURT OF GUAM

RE:)	Supreme Court of Guam
SIXTH UPDATED ORDER)	Administrative Order No. ADM20-403
RELATIVE TO COURT)
OPERATIONS UNDER EXIGENT) CIRCUMSTANCES RELATED TO) COVID-19 (CORONAVIRUS))
)

Because of the continued public health concerns arising from the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic, I Maga 'hågan Guåhan has issued a series of executive orders to stem the spread of the virus. The most recent of such orders—Executive Order No. 2020-28 issued on August 21, 2020—imposed a stay-at-home order and closed all government operations except functions critical to the health and safety of the community until August 28, 2020.

Because of the continued rise in the number of confirmed COVID-19 cases in Guam, which has placed the island’s public hospital beyond its capacity to treat COVID-19 patients, I Maga 'håga issued Executive Order No. 2020-29 on August 27, 2020. The order extends the stay-at-home directive and continues the closure of most government operations until 12:00 p.m. on September 4, 2020. At the same time, the order lifts some restrictions to ensure the health and safety of the island’s residents and to support critical business functions.

In line with the various executive orders, the court, under its jurisdiction to issue orders in aid of its supervisory jurisdiction over the Superior Court of Guam and all other courts of the judicial branch of Guam, has issued several administrative orders to protect the public health, the two most recent of such orders being ADM20-399, which, among other things, suspended court

1 operations for all matters except those deemed essential, and ADM20-402, which amended
2 ADM20-399 relative to warrant returns.

3 The court recognizes that the growing number of confirmed COVID-19 cases in Guam and 4 its resulting strain on the island’s healthcare system require continued efforts to limit the 5 transmission of the disease. At the same time, the court recognizes that it must expand its services
6 to the extent possible, keeping at the forefront the need to protect the health and safety of court
7 employees, patrons, and the general public. With these considerations in mind, the court issues
8 this SIXTH UPDATED ORDER regarding the suspension of certain court operations to protect 9 the public health by reducing the risk of exposure to COVID-19 and slowing the spread of the 10 disease:

11 1. Effective August 28, 2020, this Sixth Updated Order shall repeal and replace
12 Administrative Order Nos. ADM20-399 and ADM20-402. To the extent this Sixth
13 Updated Order conflicts with any other existing administrative order of the court, this 14 Sixth Updated Order shall prevail.

15 2. The Supreme Court of Guam and Superior Court of Guam will continue to be 16 open to conduct court business, but until at least September 9, 2020, most court
17 facilities—specifically, the Guam Judicial Center in Hagåtña, the San Ramon Temporary
18 Courtroom, the offices of the Probation Services Division, and the Judicial Education
19 Center—shall remain closed to the general public, except where entry is required to 20 address essential matters that cannot be resolved remotely (i.e., by telephone, 21 videoconference, email, or comparable means, or through the electronic filing system)
22 because it is not practicable or would contravene the protection of constitutional rights.
23 Essential court operations shall continue at the Guam Judicial Center in Hagåtña.

24 3. The following essential matters shall continue to be scheduled and heard in 25 keeping with the urgency of those matters and consistent with statutory requirements, 26 either in person as provided in paragraph 2 or remotely by video conferencing or 27 telephonic appearance, with the court to notify all participants necessary to the 28 proceeding:

- 2 b. Preliminary hearings for detained juveniles;
- 3 c. Hearings for temporary orders of custody requested by Child Protective
- 4 Services;

- 7 safety and welfare of a person or persons;

18 4. Beginning August 31, 2020, the Northern Court Satellite in Dededo shall be 19 open to the public from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday to Friday, for a limited set of 20 transactions, namely:

- 21 a. Payment of traffic citations;
- 22 b. Payment of case-related obligations, including bail, restitution, and fines
- 23 and fees; and
- 24 c. Requests for traffic and court clearances.

25 5. All other Supreme Court and Superior Court matters scheduled to be heard
26 between August 21, 2020, and September 9, 2020, are postponed and shall not be heard
27 before September 9, 2020. These include, but are not limited to, criminal and civil trials,
28

1 arraignments, appellate arguments, motion hearings, probate proceedings, traffic
2 hearings, child support hearings, and non-criminal warrant returns.

3 6. Until September 9, 2020, at 8:00 a.m., in the event that any law enforcement
4 makes contact with a person who has only a non-criminal warrant, that person may be 5 released on the non-criminal warrant and the non-criminal warrant shall remain active. If 6 the person has both a criminal warrant and non-criminal warrant, law enforcement shall 7 execute the return on both warrants.

8 7. In-person appointments with the Probation Services Division are postponed
9 until further notice.

10 8. No new grand juries shall be empaneled before September 9, 2020. Grand 11 juries whose terms expire on or before September 9, 2020, shall be extended until that 12 date. No orientation of new jurors shall take place before September 9, 2020. All active 13 petit jurors and grand jurors shall serve to the full extent of the law.

14 9. All grand jury proceedings are suspended until no earlier than September 9, 15 2020. The time periods for a preliminary examination and for filing an indictment are 16 tolled until November 30, 2020.

17 10. Any temporary restraining order, injunction, civil protection order, or stay set
18 to expire on or after August 21, 2020, in any criminal or civil matter, shall automatically
19 be extended under the same terms for fourteen (14) days or up to September 9, 2020,
20 whichever is longer, unless the Presiding Judge, or the judge who issued the order,
21 terminates or modifies the temporary restraining order, injunction, or stay.

22 11. Orders granting Child Protective Services the custody of any minor shall not 23 expire before September 9, 2020.

24 12. Defendants serving weekend sentences at the Department of Corrections will

26 otherwise ordered by the assigned Superior Court judge.

2 their time start no earlier than September 12, 2020, unless otherwise ordered by the 3 assigned Superior Court judge.

4 14. Defendants sentenced with delayed confinement to report to the Department
5 of Corrections will have their delays extended until at least September 12, 2020, unless
6 otherwise ordered by the assigned Superior Court judge.

7 15. With the exception of the filing of indictments, all filing deadlines—including
8 statutory filing deadlines—shall be tolled from August 16, 2020, until September 21,
9 2020, unless otherwise specifically ordered by the applicable court. Any court filing due
10 during this period shall be deemed timely filed if filed on September 21, 2020.

11 16. Under Guam law and court rules, the court is deemed always open for filing
12 any proper paper, issuing and returning process, making a motion, and entering an order.
13 See 8 GCA § 1.31; Guam R. Civ. P. 77(a); Guam R. App. P. 31(a)(2). Instead of in-14 person contact, filings will be accepted by the following methods:

- 15 a. E-filing
- 16 b. If e-filing is unavailable, pleadings may be filed by email to the respective

- 21 e. Designated drop boxes at the Judiciary

22 17. Any filing that requires payment of a filing fee should be paid online if

24 2020. Clerk's Office personnel will be available by telephone to answer questions
25 regarding filing methods and fees.

26 18. Until at least September 9, 2020, the Clerks of Court and parties shall serve 27 documents through electronic means or by mail, except for those limited instances in 28

1 which personal service is required. Attorneys are encouraged to provide a dedicated
2 email address for the service of documents.

3 19. Any court rule that impedes the court's ability to use technologies to eliminate
4 or limit in-person contact in the conduct of court business is suspended until December
5 31, 2020, except such suspension is subject to constitutional requirements.

6 20. Members of the public or media who would like to access court proceedings
7 should contact the court's Public Information Officer, Kristina Blaz, by email at 8 kblaz@guamcourts.org. To the extent logistically possible, the court shall provide public
9 access by video or audio to court proceedings typically open to the public to maximize
10 the public's ability to observe these proceedings.

11 21. Individuals entering a Judiciary of Guam facility for any purpose shall wear
12 face masks or other appropriate face coverings and adhere to social distancing guidelines, 13 including maintaining a distance of at least six (6) feet from other individuals in the 14 courthouse except for those residing in the same household. Persons seeking entry shall 15 also be subject to a non-contact temperature test and questioning related to COVID-19.
16 Judiciary personnel will enforce these restrictions to protect the health and safety of court
17 patrons and employees.

18 22. The following persons shall not enter the Guam Judicial Center in Hagåtña, 19 the Northern Court Satellite in Dededo, or any Judiciary of Guam facility, including, but 20 not limited to, the San Ramon Temporary Courtroom, probation offices, and the Judicial 21 Education Center:

- 22 a. Persons diagnosed with or have had contact with anyone who has been

25. The continuances occasioned by this Sixth Updated Order serve the ends of justice, protect the health and safety of criminal defendants, attorneys, court employees, and those called to jury service, and outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Therefore, the time periods of such continuances shall be excluded from speedy trial computations under 8 GCA § 80.60. All time periods involving the speedy trial procedure in criminal proceedings are tolled until November 30, 2020.
