CH. 10 HOLIDAYS, FESTIVITIES, TIME, ETC.

CHAPTER 10
HOLIDAYS, FESTIVITIES, TIME, ETC.

SOURCE: Title 1, in its entirety, was added to the GCA by P.L. 15-104:1 (Mar. 5, 1980). The original enactment of Title 1 was a separate attachment to P.L. 15-104 and included Legislative History and Compiler Comments. The source of this Chapter is Government Code, Chapter 3.

2024 NOTE: Pursuant to 5 GCA § 1510, I Maga'hågan/Maga'låhen Guåhan means the “Governor of Guam” and I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi means the “Governor.” Pursuant to 5 GCA § 1510, I Sigundo Maga'hågan/Maga'låhen Guåhan means the “Lieutenant Governor of Guam.” Pursuant to 2 GCA § 1101, I Liheslaturan Guåhan means the “Guam Legislature” and I Liheslatura means the “Legislature.”

NOTE: The Source notes have been updated to reflect subsequent changes to each provision, and the original Legislative History can be found in the attachment to P.L. 15-104. The original Compiler Comments, as found in the attachment to P.L. 15-104, have been retained in this Chapter.

COMPILER'S COMMENT: This Chapter follows existing law very closely. What has been done is to reconcile the various amendments, additions and deletions which have been made to Chapter 3 of Title 1 of the Government Code of Guam. Over the years there have been a number of sections of Chapter 3 of the Government Code which have been duplicated, but not repealed and sections which have not been amended to coincide with amendments made elsewhere in the law. These have been corrected in this Chapter of the Guam Codes Annotated.

§ 1002. Transaction of Public Business on Saturday.

Every Saturday is a holiday as regards the transaction of business in the public offices of the government where laws or other regulations provide that public offices be closed on holidays. This Section shall not be construed to prevent or invalidate the issuance, filing, service, execution, or recording of any legal process or written instrument during such period.

SOURCE: GC § 202.

§ 1003. Special or Limited Holidays; Transaction of Business on.

(a) A Special or Limited Holiday is a holiday applying only to a special class or classes of business, or a special class or classes of persons, and not appointed to be generally observed throughout Guam by all classes of business and all classes of persons.

(b) On any Special or Limited Holiday appointed by the President of the United States or I Maga'hågan/Maga'låhen Guåhan, all courts and offices of the government shall be open and function in their normal and usual manner. All other public functions shall be performed as on days which are not holidays, and all contracts shall be performed and business transacted as usual, except only as to or by the particular class of business or persons expressly limited or restricted by the provisions of the proclamation appointing or declaring such special or limited holiday.

SOURCE: GC § 203, omitting references to political subdivisions and municipalities, as Guam has no political subdivisions or municipalities which are separate political entities.

1 GCA GENERAL PROVISIONS
CH. 10 HOLIDAYS, FESTIVITIES, TIME, ETC.

§ 1006. Leap Years.

The years 1900, 2100, 2200, 2300, or any other future hundredth year, of which the year 2000 is the first, except only every fourth hundredth year, are not leap years, but common years of 365 days. The years 2000, 2400, 2800 and every other fourth hundredth year after 2000 and every fourth year, except as provided in this Section, which, by usage in Guam is considered a leap year, is a leap year consisting of 366 days.

SOURCE: GC § 207.

2024 NOTE: Reference to “Territory” replaced with “Guam” pursuant to 1 GCA § 420.

§ 1007. Year and Its Parts.

Year means a period of 365 days; half year means a period of 182 days; and quarter year means 91 days. The added day of a leap year, and the day immediately preceding, if they occur in any such period, shall be reckoned together as one day.

SOURCE: GC § 208.

§ 1008. Month, Week and Day Defined.

Month means a calendar month unless otherwise expressed. A week consists of seven consecutive days. A day is the period of time between any midnight and the midnight following. Midnight of any given day is 12:00 post meridian (p.m.), the end of the day.

SOURCE: GC §§ 209, 210, 211 and 1100.1.

COMPILER’S COMMENT: Sections 209-211 were a part of the original Government Code. In 1959 the Legislature saw fit to add the definition of “midnight” of a given day in reference to the Governor’s action on legislation. There is no good reason why such a definition should not be made uniform throughout the whole Code, and is therefore placed in this Chapter. Thus, midnight on Monday would occur at that moment ending Monday and commencing Tuesday.

§ 1009. Money of Account.

The money of account of Guam is the United States dollar and cent. Public accounts and all proceedings in courts shall be kept and had in conformity with this Section. This Section does not vitiate or affect any account, charge, or entry originally made, or any note, bond, or other instrument expressed in any other money of account; but such account, charge, or entry shall be reduced to dollars, or parts of dollars in any suit upon it.

SOURCE: GC § 213 and 214.

2024 NOTE: Reference to “Territory” replaced with “Guam” pursuant to 1 GCA § 420.

§ 1010. Standard Time.

The standard time throughout Guam for the whole year shall be that of the one hundred fiftieth meridian of longitude east from Greenwich (150NE). Such time shall be known as Guam Standard Time. Guam is hereby exempted from the provisions of Section 3(a) of the Uniform Time Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-387).

SOURCE: GC § 223, added by P.L. 5-025 (Mar. 23, 1959). P.L. 9-058 (May 1, 1967) amended § 223, but this amendment was not codified. Codified to this section by P.L. 15-104:1 (Mar. 5, 1980), with Legislative History stating that the section “gives effect to P.L. 9-058, though in simpler language.”

2024 NOTE: Reference to “territory” omitted pursuant to 1 GCA § 420.

COMPILER’S COMMENT: The United States Congress enacted the Uniform Time Act of 1966 and included Guam within the definition of a State. By so doing, the Act required that Guam either follow the provisions of § 3(a) of the Act which required all of the United States to go on Daylight Savings Time at the same time and go off Daylight Savings Time at the same time each year or exempt itself from such provisions and remain on Standard Time the whole year. Guam, by P.L. 9-058 (uncodified, but noted in the 1970 Govt. Code, Vol. 1, § 223) placed Guam on permanent Standard Time. Thus, the Governor has no further authority to promulgate Daylight Savings Time by Executive Order.

1 GCA GENERAL PROVISIONS

While the Uniform Time Act of 1966 did establish that Guam was to be treated as a State for purposes of going on and off Daylight Savings Time, it did not set as Standard Time Zone for Guam. This is because the time zones established ended with the zone centered around 150NW Latitude. Guam, of course, sits at about 144NE Latitude. Therefore, the Legislature may take three courses of action. It may keep existing law and have Guam remain on Guam Standard Time throughout the year. It may repeal the last sentence of this Section, whereupon Guam will automatically, under Federal law, go on and off Daylight Time along with the rest of the U.S. (except for those states, such as Hawaii, which have exempted themselves - as Guam has - from the Federal provisions). Thirdly, the Legislature can keep the year-round Standard Time and alter the meridian around which Guam's time is determined so that, say, Guam Standard Time would be advanced by one hour or one-half hour year round. In any event, Guam must abide by the Federal Law in following, or not following Daylight Savings Time.

§ 1011. Liberation Day.

(a) Liberation Day is a legal holiday declared in commemoration of the anniversary of the liberation of Guam from the Japanese Occupation on July 21, 1944 and the inauguration of civil government in Guam on July 21, 1950.

(b) I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi is authorized and requested to issue annually a proclamation calling upon the people of Guam to observe Liberation Day by displaying the flag at their homes or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies and festivities expressive of the public sentiment befitting the occasion.

SOURCE: GC § 220 and § 221; the Liberation Day Holiday was established by § 1000 of this Chapter.

2024 NOTE: Reference to the "Governor" replaced with I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi pursuant to 5 GCA § 1510.

§ 1012. Guam Island Fair.

Annually, I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi shall issue a proclamation calling upon the people of Guam to observe a Guam Island Fair which shall run concurrently with and incorporate the July 4th (Independence Day) and the July 21st (Liberation Day) holidays.

SOURCE: Added by P.L. 13-151 (July 1, 1976); amended by P.L. 15-039:2 (June 19, 1979) and P.L. 15-123:3 (Apr. 22, 1980). Repealed and reenacted by P.L. 16-120:27(a) (Dec. 17, 1982).

2024 NOTE: Reference to the "Governor" replaced with I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi pursuant to 5 GCA § 1510.

COMPILER'S COMMENT: This Section was enacted in response to widespread interest in continuing forms of light gambling used at the time of the Guam Island Fair to raise money for the various public and charitable institutions which use the Fair to raise money. Also, it was recognized that the July 4th and Liberation Day fairs had expanded towards each other so that it was appropriate to have only one fair encompassing the two dates.

However, § 2 of P.L. 13-151 was omitted from the new Criminal and Correctional Code due to the fact that the Criminal and Correctional Code was in the Legislature, with all corrections made to it, when this law was passed. Rather than amending that Code with this exception, it is thought better to incorporate the exception to the gambling provisions of the Criminal Code (made by P.L. 13-151) into this Section dealing with the same subject, rather than separating the two. Obviously, this Section must be read together with Chapter 64 of the Criminal and Correctional Code in order to get a fair meaning of both. See Opinion of the Attorney General 78-22.

§ 1013. Guam Island Fair Committee.

(a) The Mayors' Council of Guam is authorized and requested to annually appoint and maintain oversight of the Guam Island Fair Committee to plan and make appropriate arrangements for the celebration of this Fair.

(b) The Committee shall be composed of one (1) representative from the Department of Administration (DOA), and one (1) representative from the Office of Public Accountability (OPA), and the First Lady of Guam. The Committee shall also include members of patriotic, religious, or other civic organizations. In lieu of such Committee, the Mayors' Council of Guam may designate one (1) or more such civic organizations as sponsors to plan and arrange for the Fair, provided, that one (1) representative from the Department of Administration (DOA), one (1) representative from the Office of Public Accountability (OPA), and the First Lady of Guam are members of that Committee.

CH. 10 HOLIDAYS, FESTIVITIES, TIME, ETC.

(c) The net proceeds from the Guam Island Fair shall be divided in the following manner:

(1) The Mayors' Council of Guam shall be entitled to retain fifty percent (50%) of the net proceeds and may convey any interest or portion thereof to any charitable organization; and

(2) Fifty percent (50%) of the net proceeds shall be held in trust by the Council and monies in this trust shall be donated to a charity or worthy public cause as the First Lady shall solely determine.

(d) The government of Guam may furnish a suitable site, if needed, but neither it nor any agencies, instrumentalities, nor employees may use government supplies or equipment in the planning and preparation for the Island Fair. Unless appropriated by I Liheslatura, or approved by the governing board of applicable autonomous agencies, no government funds or materials shall be used in the preparation of floats.

(e) Any casino gambling activity must be approved by I Maga'håga/Maga'låhi in writing.

SOURCE: GC § 222. Amended by P.L. 31-025:2 (Apr. 18, 2011).

2024 NOTE: Subsection designations added and modified pursuant to authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606.

2014 NOTE: Subsection designations (a) and (b) were added to adhere to the Compiler's alpha-numeric scheme in accordance with the authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606.

COMPILER'S COMMENT: In addition to updating this Section to make reference to § 1012 of this Chapter, the Commission has clarified and detailed the prohibition on Government participation in the planning and organization of the Fair. The former single sentence prohibition has been widely and regularly circumvented, with some employees of the government spending much of their time on preparation for the fair. This is not intended. However, since floats are of great public interest and have become an integral part of the parades held during the Island Fair, and are not revenue-producing for the charitable committee operating the Fair, there seems no harm in permitting employees some time off, as now widely occurs, to prepare these floats, so long as governmental material and tools are not used.

§ 1013.1. Liberation Day Carnival.

(a) Whenever the Guam Island Fair is to be held in a location other than the Hagåtña Paseo grounds, then any Civic Organization, as provided herein, may sponsor a Liberation Day Carnival for the same duration as the Guam Island Fair. In this instance, the Mayors' Council shall appoint a Liberation Day Carnival committee to plan and make appropriate arrangements for the celebration of this Carnival. The Committee shall be composed of members of patriotic, religious, or other civic organizations.

(b) In the event the Guam Island Fair is not held at the Hagåtña Paseo grounds, then the sponsoring organization may utilize the Hagåtña Paseo grounds to sponsor its own Liberation Day Carnival as provided herein. The responsible governmental agency or agencies shall issue a permit to the sponsoring organization to conduct the Liberation Day Carnival at the Hagåtña Paseo grounds. The provisions of law contained in §§ 64.62 and 64.70 of Title 9 of the Guam Code Annotated shall be applicable to the Liberation Day Carnival held at the Hagåtña Paseo grounds as provided herein.

(c) The net proceeds from the Liberation Day Carnival shall be divided in the following manner:

(1) The Mayors' Council of Guam shall be entitled to retain fifty percent (50%) of the net proceeds and may convey any interest or portion thereof to any charitable organization; and

(2) Fifty percent (50%) of the net proceeds shall be held in trust by the Council and monies in this trust shall be donated to a charity or worthy public cause as the First Lady shall solely determine.

1 GCA GENERAL PROVISIONS
CH. 10 HOLIDAYS, FESTIVITIES, TIME, ETC.

(3) The Mayors' Council of Guam shall be subjected to an audit by the Public Auditor in calculating the net proceeds.

(d) Whenever the Guam Island Fair is to be held at the Hagåtña Paseo grounds, then such Fair will be consolidated with the Liberation Day Carnival as provided herein, and the sections pertaining to the Guam Island Fair shall apply.

SOURCE: Added by P.L. 17-010 (June 14, 1983). Subsection (a) amended by P.L. 17-014:4 (June 27, 1983). Subsection (c) repealed and reenacted by P.L. 28-068:II:I:9 (Sept. 30, 2005) (FY2006 Annual Appropriations Act); amended by P.L. 31-025:3 (Apr. 18, 2011).

2024 NOTE: Subsection designations modified pursuant to authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606.

NOTE: References to the Agana changed to Hagåtña pursuant to 1 GCA § 403(b).

2014 NOTE: Although not codified, the location of the Liberation Day festivities has been addressed in the following public laws:

P.L. 20-229:3 (Jan. 30, 1991) ("Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Liberation Day festivities (except for the Liberation Day Parade) shall be held at Ypao Beach Park in the years 1991 and 1992.")

P.L. 21-136:15 (Sept. 29, 1992) ("Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Liberation Day Festivities (except for the Liberation Day Parade) shall be held at Ypao Beach Park.")

In light of these public laws, it is not clear whether there is legislative intent for subsections (a), (b), and (d) to be repealed by implication.

§ 1013.2. Applicability.

Title 1 Guam Code Annotated § 1013.1, as provided above, shall apply only when the Guam Island Fair is held in a location other than the Hagåtña Paseo grounds.

In addition, any person guilty of obstruction as indicated above shall be civilly liable for any losses suffered by any applicant for the arbitrary denial of a license or permit as indicated above, plus cost and reasonable attorneys fees in any civil action to require the proper government officials to issue a permit or license as prescribed. The civil penalty shall be not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) nor more than twice the amount of losses sustained by the applicant for a license or permit as a result of such obstruction.

§ 1014. Guam Youth Month.

(b) The Guam Youth Week shall be under the direct supervision of the Department of Youth Affairs in cooperation with school officials, private and public.

information on each expenditure including the date of expenditure, the amount and the purpose. The report shall be submitted no later than July 31 annually.

COMPILER’S COMMENT: This Section incorporates the administrative provisions of P.L. 14-014, and has designated the new Department of Youth Affairs as the logical oversight body, but permits the Governor to designate any other appropriate oversight body as he deems fit.

This new Section makes future “administrative provisions” unnecessary. This Section contains all such provisions as are necessary for the annual conduct of Youth week, which, like the Island Fair, has expanded over the years from one day to a week’s worth of activities.

NOTE: Prior print publications of this section included the following note from the Compiler of Laws:

COMMENT: The Section as enacted by P.L. 15-064 is included in this Title as the last clear enactment by the Legislature on this subject. Technically, the Legislature repealed P.L. 15-064 with the adoption of Title 1, Guam Code Annotated. However, because this section was not specifically considered by the Legislature, and represents the law as it existed prior to P.L. 15-104 (this Title), this Compiler believes that the Legislature fully intended to continue the provisions of P.L. 15-064. There is no visible intent that the Legislature intended to revert to a section it had only recently repealed.

“When a valid and operative provision is omitted from a Code through oversight, however, it may be held to continue in effect, even in the face of a provision in the Code declaring all prior laws repealed.” Norris vs McDaniel 207 Ga. 232, 60 SE.2d 329 (1950).

§ 1017. Gubernatorial Inauguration Day.

The first Monday in January of every fourth year, beginning with January 1971, is a designated Gubernatorial Inauguration Day, on which day I Maga’hågan/Maga’låhen Guåhan and I Sigundo Maga’hågan/Maga’låhen Guåhan elected in the general election preceding such day shall be sworn into office. The inauguration shall be arranged by I Maga’hågan/Maga’låhen Guåhan-elect’s Transition Committee, which shall coordinate its planning with the incumbent I Maga’hågan/Maga’låhen Guåhan.

SOURCE: GC § 204.1, added P.L. 10-107 (Feb. 6, 1970). Amended by P.L. 26-157:6 (Dec. 15, 2002).

NOTE: According to the Legislative History found in the attachment to P.L. 15-104 (Mar. 5, 1980), the reference to the Transition Committee was added to conform with former GC § 5010, which was added by P.L. 10-111 (Feb. 17, 1970) and amended by P.L. 12-188 (Dec. 12, 1974).

COMPILER’S COMMENT: Former Government Code 204.1 was added before the creation of the Transition Committee was created. This Transition Committee is an official government entity. Recent practice has given more and more control over the inauguration to this Committee, rather than to the incumbent Governor. Therefore, this Section has been amended to reflect both recent practice and the creation of the Transition Committee.

§ 1018. Legislative Inauguration.

In those years when the opening of a new legislature falls on the same day as does the inauguration of a governor, the inauguration ceremonies of I Liheslatura shall be coordinated with I Maga’håga/Maga’låhi-elect’s Transition Committee so that there is no conflict between the two ceremonies and so that the two may be one ceremony if this is the desire of the Committee and I Liheslatura. In those years that the opening of I Liheslatura does not coincide with the inauguration of a governor, the ceremonies shall be the sole responsibility of I Liheslatura.

SOURCE: Added by P.L. 15-104:1 (Mar. 5, 1980).

2024 NOTE: Reference to the “Governor” replaced with I Maga’håga/Maga’låhi pursuant to 5 GCA § 1510. Reference to the “Legislature” replaced with I Liheslatura pursuant to 2 GCA § 1101.

NOTE: According to the Legislative History found in the attachment to P.L. 15-104, this section was required by P.L. 13-073 (Oct. 22, 1975).

COMPILER’S COMMENT: Following confusion which occurred because, in 1974 the new Governor’s term overlapped the term of the old legislature by one week, former Govt. Code § 1015 was amended so that the Legislature convenes on the same day the new Governor is inaugurated. Because of this, two important ceremonies will be conducted on the same day. It is felt that the relationship between the two should be spelled out in law to provide guidance to all the parties concerned. Of course, these problems will occur only during years in which a Governor is inaugurated. In other years, the Legislature is free to plan according to its wishes alone.

2021 NOTE: P.L. 32-145:1 (Apr. 28, 2014) amended 1 GCA § 1000 to designate the first Monday of March of each year as Guam History and Chamorro Heritage Day. P.L. 32-145 did not address this provision, specifically, subsection (a) which designates the first Monday in March as Guam Discovery Day.

NOTE: Prior publications of the GCA included the following comment from the previous Compiler of Laws:

COMMENT: Two duplicate sections relative to Discovery Day exist. Former Govt. Code § 229 merely established the Day. Former Govt. Code § 230 enacted by the same P.L. 12-071 (Jan. 15, 1974), created both the Guam Discovery Day and Chamorro Week. There is no need for two such sections to exist simultaneously and, therefore, the two have been merged into this one Section. Further, the Law Revision Commission has added the words “by Europeans” after “... Discovery of Guam...” as a fair description of whose discovery is celebrated. Obviously, Discovery Day is not celebrating the discovery of Guam by the original inhabitants, who were present to greet Magellan upon his arrival at (discovery of) Umatac Bay.

The fund shall be expended upon authorization by the Marianas Fishing Derby Committee. The Marianas Fishing Derby Committee is authorized to accept donations and grants which shall be deposited in the Fund.

Prior publications of the GCA included the following comment from the previous Compiler of Laws:

COMMENT: As has been done with other portions of this Title, the Commission recommends that sections of the former Government Code dealing with parts of the same subject matter be consolidated into one section. This way, there is less likelihood of confusion when reading the various sections. The Marianas Fishing Derby was created by P.L. 13-203 (Dec. 13, 1976) and the Marianas Fishing Derby Fund was added by P.L. 14-058 (Aug. 29, 1977).
