SOURCE: Enacted 1977; amended by P.L. 14-111, eff. 03/28/78; Subsection (j) added by P.L. 15-134, eff. 05/03/80; Subsections (k) and (l) added by P.L. 17-16; Subsection (m) added by P.L. 17-78:9; Subsection (h) amended by P.L. 19-04:23. Subsection (f) amended by P.L. 23-44:1. Subsection (e) amended by P.L. 26-38. Amended by P.L. 27-36:1, (Nov. 13, 2003). Amended by P.L. 29-012:3 (Sept. 7, 2007). Subsection (g) amended by P.L. 30-153:2 (July 2, 2010).

2007 NOTE: Prior to the enactment of P.L. 29-012:3, subsection (l) defined certain personnel of the U.S. Government and subsection (m) defined certain Fire Personnel of the Guam Fire Department. The amendment of P.L. 29-012:3 inadvertently consolidated subsections (l) and (m), which the Compiler believes to be a manifest error. Renumbered (a) through (p) to harmoniously fit this section.

NOTE: A.G. Opinion #78-19: Alcoholic Beverage Control inspectors have not been classified as peace officers within the meaning of these two Sections. Therefore, they are not authorized to carry firearms under the exceptions provided for peace officers.

COMMENT: Section 5.55 follows exactly former § 851 of the Penal Code, as amended by P.L. 13-117. This amendment added certain officials as Peace Officers for the purpose of aiding their regular statutory duties, not giving competition to the Guam Police Department. Added were those positions listed in Subsections (e) through (h) [in original enactment]. Deleted from former law are "all other magistrates," meaning other judges not hearing the case in question. Now no judge is a peace officer.

The purpose of this amendment is to give the same status to all officers who have as all or part of their duties responsibilities which are those of traditional peace officers.

CH. 5 CONSTRUCTION; DEFINITIONS

("Department of Public Safety" changed to "Guam Police Department" to 5 GCA § 3101 as amended by P.L. 17-78:8)

CROSS-REFERENCES: See 10 GCA § 89108 & 89109 relative to enforcing the anti-smoking law enacted by P.L. 21-139. For a more recent definition of Peace Officer, see 17 GCA § 51101(b) in the Article dealing with the Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission.

2016 NOTE: Pursuant to the authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606, the reference to 17 GCA § 32301(b) was altered to reflect its re-codification in the GCA.

§ 5.56. Peace Officers to Yield to Guam Police Department.

A peace officer while acting within his statutory law enforcement authority outside of his jurisdiction shall yield and be subordinated to a peace officer of the Guam Police Department who subsequently responds having such jurisdiction as provided within 10 GCA § 77103.

SOURCE: Added by P.L. 27-36:2

§ 5.60. Prosecuting Attorney Defined.

As used in this Code, prosecuting attorney means any attorney, by whatever title designated, having by law the right of duty to prosecute any offense in behalf of the Territory.

CROSS-REFERENCES: Section 5.60 is new. It is based on a comparable definition set forth in § 691 of the California Penal Code. At present the Attorney General is the prosecuting attorney. However, from time to time, "special prosecutors" may be created and perhaps some day the function may be transferred to a separate office. § 5.60 is flexible enough to accommodate all of these possibilities.

§ 5.65. Territory Defined.

As used in this Code, Territory means the territory of Guam.
