ORDER SUPPLEMENTING RECORD ON APPEAL

[1] Title 8 G.C.A. § 40.80, which provides the basis for appeal in this case, requires that the lower court's order be affirmed "if supported by the proceedings below." The language of § 40.80 contemplates that a record of the relevant portions of the proceedings below will be made available for review.

[2] The Supreme Court, having heard oral arguments from both Appellant and Appellee on 12 August 1996, has determined that certain items filed with the Superior Court but not designated by the parties are nonetheless relevant to the disposition of this appeal, and are to be considered by this Court in determining the merits of the appeal. Consistent with the language of 8 G.C.A. § 40.80, the record on appeal should be supplemented to include these items.

[3] Rule 33 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure for the Supreme Court of Guam provides that "[i]n all cases not provided for by rule, the Supreme Court may regulate its practice in any manner."

[4] The Supreme Court hereby exercises its authority under Rule 33 and orders the Clerk of the Superior Court to prepare and transmit the following items to the Supreme Court to be included in the record on appeal:

(1) Magistrates Complaint with attached Declaration of Probable Cause from CF0081-96. (Clerk's Docket Sheet #001, February 16, 1996.)

(2)(2) Transcripts of the Bail Hearing of 30 July 1996 from CF0081-96 and CF0218-96. (Tape 96-0879, Log No. 1545-2350.)

(3) Transcripts of the Redetermination Hearing of 31 July 1996 from CF0081-96 and CF0218-96. (Tape 96-0880, Log No. 1010-1440.)

SO ORDERED this 21st day of August, 1996.
