§ 11201. When Government of Guam Will Not Sue.

The government of Guam will not sue any person for or in respect to any real property, or the issue or profits thereof, by reason of the right or title of the government of Guam to the same, unless:

(a) Such right or title or cause of action shall have accrued within ten years before any action or other proceeding for the same is commenced; or,

(b) The government of Guam, or those from whom they claim, shall have received the rents and profits of such real property, or some part thereof, within the space of ten years; or,

(c) The Governor of Guam by special order shall direct an action to be brought.

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

No action can be brought for, or in respect to, real property by any person claiming under letters patent, or grants from any government of this territory, unless the same might have been commenced by the government of Guam as herein specified, in case such patent had not been issued or grant made.

SOURCE: CCP § 316.

§ 11203. Actions to be Brought Within Five Years.

When letters patent or grants of real property issued or made by the government of Guam, or any previous government of Guam, are declared void by the determination of a competent court, an action for the recovery of the property so conveyed may be brought, either by the government of Guam, or by any subsequent patentee or grantee of the property, his heirs, or assigns, within five years after such determination, but not after that period.

SOURCE: CCP § 317.

§ 11204. Limitation of Actions Relating to Registered Land.

No person shall commence any action at law or in equity for the recovery of land, or assert any interest in or right in or lien or demand upon the same, or make entry thereon adversely to the title of interest certified in the certificate of title bringing the land under the operation of the Land Title Registration Act after one (1) year following the first registration, providing said first registration is not void for any of the reasons set forth in 21 GCA 29139. It shall be an exception to this rule that the person entitled to bring the action or make the entry is deceased, an infant, lunatic or is under any disability, but action may be brought by such person by his next kin or guardian or by the administrator or the executor of the deceased person. It shall be the duty of the guardian, if there is any, to bring action in the name of his ward whenever it is necessary to preserve or enforce the ward's rights in registered land, provided, however, before such action shall proceed, it must be made to appear to the court that the person bringing such action or those under whom he claims, had no actual notice of the proceedings to register such lands in time to appear and file an objection or a service claim. The provisions of this Section shall in no way affect or disturb the rights of any person in said land acquired subsequent to the registration there-of, modified and without knowledge and for a valuable consideration.

SOURCE: § 1157.14, Civil Code (Land Title Registration Act) [21 GCA § 29146].

COMMENT: In enacting the Land Title Registration Act, § 1157.44 was included as a separate statute of limitations relative to registered titles. It seems best to place all such statutes of limitations in one Chapter and Article to avoid confusion. This is particularly the case since what is now the Civil Code of Guam will be replaced by new Titles conforming to the concepts of the Guam Code Annotated.

COURT DECISIONS: See Sauget v Villagomez, (1955) 228 F.2d. 374.

§ 11205. When Seizin Necessary Within 5 years.

No action for the recovery of real property, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, can be maintained, unless it appear that the plaintiff, his ancestor, predecessor, or grantor, was seized or possessed of the property in question, within five years before the commencement of the action.

SOURCE: CCP § 318.

NOTE: Section § 11212 of this Chapter provides that no adverse possession may be used to acquire title unless all taxes have been paid on the land claimed.

§ 11206. When Such Seizin Necessary.

No cause of action, or defense to an action, arising out of the title to real property or to rents or profits out of the same, can be effectual, unless it appears that the person prosecuting the action, or making the defense, or, under whose title the action is prosecuted, or the defense is made, or the ancestor, predecessor, or grantor of such person was seized or possessed of the premises in question within five years before the commencement of the act in respect to which such action is prosecuted or defense made. Provided that no cause of action, or defense to an action, arising out of the right in the nature of a public road, thoroughfare or highway which is acquired by the adverse and notorious use of any person or persons, can be effectual unless it appears that the person prosecuting the action, or making the defense, or the ancestor, predecessor, or grantor of such person, was seized or § 11207. Entry on Real Estate.

No entry upon real estate is deemed sufficient or valid as a claim, unless an action be commenced thereupon within one year after making such entry, and within five years from the time when the right to make it descended or accrued.

SOURCE: CCP § 320.

§ 11208. Possession, When Presumed.

Occupation, when deemed legal. In every action for the recovery of real property, or the possession thereof, the person establishing a legal title to the property is presumed to have been possessed thereof within the time required by law, and the occupation of the property by any other person is deemed to have been under and in subordination to the legal title, unless it appears that the property has been held and possessed adversely to such legal title for five years before the commencement of the action.

SOURCE: CCP § 321.

§ 11209. Adverse Possession Under Judgment or Writing.

When it appears that the occupant, or those under whom he claims, entered into the possession of the property under claim of title, exclusive of other right, founding such claim upon a written instrument, as being a conveyance of the property in question, or upon the decree or judgment of a competent court, and that there has been a continued occupation and possession of the property included in such instrument, decree, or judgment, or of some part of the property, under such claim, for five years, the property so included is deemed to have been held adversely, except that when it consists of a tract divided into lots, the possession of one lot is not deemed a possession of any other lot of the same tract.

§ 11210. What Is Adverse Possession Under Written Instrument or Judgment.

For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession, by any person claiming a title founded upon a written instrument, or a judgment or decree, land is deemed to have been possessed and occupied in the following cases:

(a) Where it has been usually cultivated or improved.

(b) Where it has been protected by a substantial enclosure.

(c) Where, although not enclosed, it has been used for the supply of fuel, or of fencing timber for the purposes of husbandry, or for pasturage, or for the ordinary use of the occupant.

(d) Where a known farm or single lot has been partly improved, the portion of such farm or lot that may have been left not cleared, or not enclosed according to the usual course and custom of the adjoining country, shall be deemed to have been occupied for the same length of time as the part improved and cultivated.

2016 NOTE: Subsection designations were altered to adhere to the Compiler's codification and alpha-numeric schemes pursuant to authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606.

§ 11211. Adverse Possession: Premises Actually Occupied Under Claim of Title.

Where it appears that there has been an actual continued occupation of land, under a claim of title, exclusive of any other right, but not founded upon a written instrument, judgment, or decree, the land so actually occupied, and no other, is deemed to have been held adversely.

SOURCE: CP § 324.

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

COMMENT: Court cases have long established that adverse possession cannot be made to obtain title in land owned by the government of Guam. See In re application of Andersen Iglesias, 1 Guam R. 129, 142.

§ 11212. Adverse Possession Under Claim Not in Writing.

For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession by a person claiming title, not founded upon a written instrument, judgment, or decree, land is deemed to have been possessed and occupied in the following cases only:

(a) Where it has been protected by a substantial enclosure;

(b) Where it has been usually cultivated or improved; provided, however, that in no case shall adverse possession be considered established under the provisions of any section or sections of this Title, unless it shall be shown that the land has been occupied and claimed for the period of ten years continuously, and the party or persons, their predecessors and grantors, have paid all the taxes which have been levied and assessed on such land.

SOURCE: CCP § 325.

2016 NOTE: Subsection designations were altered to adhere to the Compiler's codification and alpha-numeric schemes pursuant to authority granted by 1 GCA § 1606.

§ 11213. Relation of Landlord and Tenant -- Adverse Possession.

When the relation of landlord and tenant has existed between any persons, the possession of the tenant is deemed the possession of the landlord until expiration of five (5) years from the termination of the tenancy, or, where there has been no written lease, until the expiration of five (5) years from the time of the last payment of rent, notwithstanding that such tenant may have acquired another title, or may have claimed to hold adversely to his landlord. But such presumptions cannot be made after the periods herein limited.

§ 11214. Right of Possession Not Affected By Descent Cast.

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

The right of a person to the possession of real property is not impaired or affected by a descent cast in consequence of the death of a person in possession of such property.

SOURCE: Guam CCP § 327.

§ 11215. Certain Disabilities Excluded From Time to Commence Actions.

If a person entitled to commence an action for the recovery of real property, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, or to make any entry or defense founded on the title to real property, or to rents or services out of the same is, at the time such title first descends or accrues, either:

- (a) Under the age of majority; or
- (b) Insane.

The time, not exceeding twenty (20) years, during which such disability continues is not deemed any portion of the time in this Article limited for the commencement of such action, or the making of such entry or defense, but such action may be commenced or entry or defense made, within the period of five years after such disability shall cease, or after the death of the person entitled, who shall die under such disability, but such action shall not be commenced, or entry or defense made, after that period.

§ 11309. Limitations on Actions Regarding Patent Deficiencies in Improvements in Real Estate.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, no action shall be brought to recover damages from any person performing or furnishing the design, specifications, surveying, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of an improvement to real property more than ten (10) years after the date of substantial completion of the development or improvement for any of the following:

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

(1) Any patent deficiency in the design, specifications, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of an improvement to, or survey of, real property;

(2) Injury to property, real or personal, arising out of any such patent deficiency; or

(3) Injury to the person or for wrongful death arising out of any such patent deficiency.

(b) If, by reason of such patent deficiency, an injury to property or the person of an injury causing wrongful death occurs during the tenth (10th) year after the date of substantial completion of the development or improvement, an action in tort to recover damages for such an injury or wrongful death may be brought within one (1) year after the date on which such injury occurred, irrespective of the date of death, but in no event may such an action be brought more than eleven (11) years after the date of substantial completion of the development or improvement.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as extending the period prescribed by the laws of this territory for the bringing of any action.

(d) The limitation prescribed by this section shall not be asserted as a defense by any person in actual possession or control, as owner, tenant, or otherwise, of such an improvement at the time any deficiency in such an improvement constitutes the proximate cause of the injury or death for which it is proposed to bring an action.

date of substantial completion of the development or improvement for any of the following:

(1) Any latent deficiency in the design, specifications, planning, supervision or observation of construction or construction of an improvement to, or survey of, real property;

(2) Injury to property, real or personal, arising out of any such patent deficiency.

(b) As used in this section, latent deficiency means a deficiency which is not apparent by reasonable inspection.

(c) As used in this section, action includes an action for indemnity brought against a person arising out of his performance or furnishing of services or materials referred to in this section, except that a cross-complaint for indemnity may be filed in an action which has been brought within the time period set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as extending the period prescribed by the laws of this territory for the bringing of any action.

(e) The limitation prescribed by this section shall not be asserted as a defense by any person in actual possession or control, as owner, tenant, or otherwise, of such an improvement, at the time any deficiency in such improvement constitutes the proximate cause for which it is proposed to bring an action.

(f) This section shall not apply to actions based on willful misconduct or fraudulent concealment.

§ 11317. No Limitations; Action to Recover Deposit of Money or Property; Affect of Insolvency.

To actions brought to recover money or other property deposited with any bank, banker, trust company, building and loan association, or savings and loan society there is no limitation.

This Section shall not apply to banks, bankers, trust companies, building and loan associations, and savings and loan societies which have become insolvent and are in process of liquidation and in such cases the statute of limitations shall have been deemed to have commenced to run from the beginning of the process of liquidation; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to relieve any stockholder of any banking corporation or trust company from stockholders' liability as shall at any time be provided by law.

§ 11401. When an Action Is Commenced.

An action is commenced within the meaning of this Title when the complaint is filed.

SOURCE: CCP § 350.

§ 11402. Exposure to Asbestos, Actions for Injury, Illness or Wrongful Death.

(a) In any civil action for injury or illness based upon exposure to asbestos, chemicals, or other toxic agents, the time for the commencement of the action shall be the later of the following:

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

(1) Within two (2) years after the date the plaintiff first suffered disability and either before or after suffering the disability the plaintiff was informed by a licensed physician, clearly and comprehensively, to the degree that the plaintiff is capable of understanding, that he was diagnosed as having any one or more of the following several and distinct injuries, pleural disease, or pulmonary asbestosis, or malignant mesothelioma, or other carcinoma or other specific asbestos-related injury, causing the disability; or

(2) Within two (2) years after the date the plaintiff either knew, or through the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known,

(A) that such disability was caused or contributed to by such exposure and

(B) that the disability or injury was caused by a violation of a duty towards the plaintiff; or

(3) Two (2) years from the effective date of this Act.

(b) Disability as used in Subsection (a) of this Section means the loss of time from work as a result of exposure to asbestos, which precludes the performance of the employee's regular occupation.

(c) In an action for the wrongful death of any plaintiff's decedent, based upon exposure to asbestos, the time for commencement of an action shall be the later of the following:

(1) Within two (2) years from the date of death of the plaintiff's decedent, or the date of enactment of this Act, whichever is later; or

(2) Within two (2) years from the date the plaintiff first knew, or through the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known, that the death was caused or contributed to by such exposure.

(d) The provisions of this Section shall apply retroactively to all unfiled claims and to all pending litigation in the courts of Guam, or which are on appeal. Pending litigation as used in this

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

Subsection shall include any action that has been filed in the courts of Guam.

(e) The burden of proving that this Section is a bar to any cause of action for illness, injury, property damage or wrongful death is upon the party asserting this section as a defense.

(f) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as waiving the sovereign immunity of the government of Guam.

(g) This Section shall not change the statute of limitations for any claim against the government of Guam.

§ 11403. Where Defendant is Out of Guam.

If, when the cause of action accrues against the person, he is out of Guam, the action may be commenced, within the term herein limited, after his return to Guam and if, after the cause of action accrues, he departs from Guam, the time of his absence is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

SOURCE: CCP § 351.

§ 11404. Exception for Persons Under Disabilities.

If a person entitled to bring an action, mentioned in Article 3 of this Chapter, be, at the time the cause of action accrued, either:

(a) A minor; or

(b) Insane; or

(c) A married woman, and her husband be a necessary party with her in commencing such action; the time of such disability is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

§ 11405. Death Before Expiration of Limitation.

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

If a person entitled to bring an action dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof, and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced by his representative, after the expiration of that time, and within six (6) months from his death. If a person against whom an action may be brought dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof, and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced against his representatives, after the expiration of that time, and within one (1) year after the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration, or an action against the estate provided for by 15 GCA 2523 may be commenced within one (1) year after the expiration of the time otherwise limited for the commencement thereof.

SOURCE: CCP § 353.

COMMENT: The editor to the 1970 Guam Codes refers, as a note to this section, to FRCP Rule 25 as requiring that substitution of parties must be within ninety (90) days of suggestion of death on the record. However, it seems to the Compiler that this Section and Rule 25 are not related. This Section permits the bringing of action after the death of one who would have been the party. Rule 25 requires substitution of parties in actions that have already begun before the relevant death.

§ 11406. Disability During War; Effect on Limitation Period.

When a person is an alien subject, or citizen of a country at war with the United States, the time of the continuance of the war is not part of the period limited for the commencement of the action.

SOURCE: CCP § 354.

§ 11407. Provision Where Judgment has been Reversed.

If an action is commenced within the time prescribed therefor, and judgment therein for the plaintiff be reversed on appeal, the plaintiff, or, if he dies and the cause of action survives, his representatives, may commence a new action within one (1) year after the reversal.

SOURCE: CCP § 355.

§ 11408. Provision Where Action is Stayed by Injunction.

When the commencement of an action is stayed by injunction or statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of the § 11410. When Two or More Disabilities Exist.

When two or more disabilities coexist at the time the right of action accrues, the limitation does not attach until they are removed.

§ 11411. Limitations Against Directors or Stockholders.

This Chapter does not affect actions against directors or stockholders of a corporation to recover a penalty or forfeiture imposed, or to enforce a liability created by law; but such actions must be brought within three (3) years after the discovery, by the aggrieved party, of the facts upon which the penalty or forfeiture attached, or the liability, was created.

SOURCE: CCP § 359.

§ 11412. Acknowledgment or New Promise.

No acknowledgment or promise is sufficient evidence of a new or continuing contract, by which to take the case out of the operation of this Chapter, unless the same is contained in some writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby.

SOURCE: CCP § 360.

§ 11413. Effect of Limitation Laws of Other States or Countries.

When a cause of action has arisen in any state, or in a foreign country, and by the laws thereof an action thereon cannot there be maintained against a person by reason of the lapse of time, an action thereon shall not be maintained against him in Guam,

7 GCA CIVIL PROCEDURE
CH. 11 STATUTES OF LIMITATION

except in favor of one who has been a citizen of Guam, and who has held the cause of action from the time it accrued.

SOURCE: CCP § 361.

§ 11414. Existing Causes of Action Not Affected.

This Chapter does not extend to actions already commenced nor to cases where the time prescribed in any existing statute for acquiring a right or barring a remedy has fully run, but the laws now in force are applicable to such actions and cases, and are repealed subject to the provisions of this Section.

SOURCE: CCP § 362.

§ 11415. Action Defined.

The word action as used in this Chapter is to be construed, whenever it is necessary so to do, as including a special proceeding of a civil nature.

SOURCE: CCP § 363.

§ 11416. Exception. Where a Party is Evading Service of Process.

If after the time a cause of action accrues against a parent for recovery of amounts which the parent is obligated to pay to the government of Guam as a result of public assistance having been granted due to the separation or desertion of the parent from a child or children, that parent is evading service of process, the time that parent evades service of process is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.
