§ 25203. Partnership Property.

§ 25201. Partnership Defined.

(1) A partnership is an association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit and includes a registered limited liability partnership.

(2) But any association formed under any other law of Guam or any law adopted by authority, other than the authority of this government, is not a partnership under this Chapter, unless such association would have been a partnership in Guam prior to 1934; but this law shall apply to special partnerships except insofar as the law relating to such partnerships is inconsistent herewith.

SOURCE: CC § 2400. Subsection (1) amended by P.L. 23-65:2.

§ 25202. Rules for Determining the Existence of a Partnership.

In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules shall apply:

(1) Except as provided by § 25308, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to third persons.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(2) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership whether such co-owners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

(3) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, whether or not the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

(4) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business but no such inference shall be drawn if such profits were received in payment:

(a) As a debt by installments or otherwise;

(b) As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord;

(c) As an annuity to a widow or representative of a deceased partner;

(d) As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business;

(e) As the consideration for the sale of the good will of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS
DEALING WITH THE PARTNERSHIP

- § 25301. Partner, Agent of Partnership as to Partnership Business.
- § 25302. Conveyance of Real Property of the Partnership.
- § 25303. Partnership Bound by Admission of Partner.
- § 25304. Partnership Charged with Knowledge of or Notice to Partner.
- § 25305. Partnership Bound by Partner's Wrongful Act.
- § 25306. Partnership Bound by Partner's Breach of Trust.
- § 25307. Nature of Partner's Liability.
- § 25308. Partner by Estoppel.
- § 25309. Liability of Incoming Partner.

§ 25301. Partner, Agent of Partnership as to Partnership Business.

(1) Every partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business, and the act of every partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the partnership of which he is a member, binds the partnership, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter, and the person with whom he is dealing has knowledge of the fact that he has no such authority.

(2) An act of a partner, which is not apparently for carrying on of the business of the partnership in the usual way, does not bind the partnership unless authorized by the other partners.

(3) Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have abandoned the business, one or more but less than all the partners have no authority to:

- (a) Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the assignee's promise to pay the debts of the partnership.
- (b) Dispose of the good will of the business.
- (c) Do any other act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the partnership.
- (d) Confess a judgment.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(e) Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or reference.

(4) No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on his authority shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the restrictions.

SOURCE: CC § 2403.

§ 25302. Conveyance of Real Property of the Partnership.

(1) Where title to real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title to such property by conveyance executed in the partnership name; but the partnership may recover such property unless the partner's act binds the partnership under the provisions of paragraph (1) of § 25301, or unless such property has been conveyed by the grantee or a person claiming through such grantee to a holder for value without knowledge that the partner, in making the conveyance, has exceeded his authority.

(2) Where title to real property is in the name of the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner, in his own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of paragraph (1) of § 25301.

(3) Where title to real property is in the name of one or more but not all the partners, and the record does not disclose the right of the partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey title to such property, but the partnership may recover such property if the partner's act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of paragraph (1) of § 25301, unless the purchaser or his assignee, is the holder for value, without knowledge.

(4) Where the title to real property is in the name of one or more or all the partners, or in a third person in trust for the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner in the partnership name, or in his own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of paragraph (1) of § 25301.

(5) Where the title to real property is in the names of all the partners a conveyance executed by all the partners passes all their rights in such property.

§ 25303. Partnership Bound by Admission of Partner.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

An admission or representation made by any partner concerning partnership affairs within the scope of his authority as conferred by this Chapter is evidence against the partnership.

SOURCE: CC § 2405.

§ 25304. Partnership Charged with Knowledge of or Notice to Partner.

Notice to any partner of any matter relating to partnership affairs, and the knowledge of the partner acting in the particular matter, acquired while a partner or then present to his mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operate as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

SOURCE: CC § 2406.

§ 25305. Partnership Bound by Partner's Wrongful Act.

Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership, or with the authority of his copartners, loss or injury is caused to any person, not being a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred, the partnership is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

SOURCE: CC § 2407.

§ 25306. Partnership Bound by Partner's Breach of Trust.

The partnership is bound to make good the loss:

(a) Where one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and

(b) Where the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by any partner while it is in the custody of the partnership.

SOURCE: CC § 2408.

§ 25307. Nature of Partner's Liability.

Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this Section all partners are liable:

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(a) Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under § 25305 and § 25306.

(b) Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership; but any partner may enter in a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract.

(c) A partner in a registered limited liability partnership is not liable directly or indirectly (including by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment or otherwise) for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, arising from omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct or malpractice committed while the partnership is a registered limited liability partnership and in the course of the partnership business by another partner, or an employee, agent, or representative of the partnership not under his direct supervision and control.

(1) This Section shall not affect the liability of a partner in a registered limited liability partnership for his own omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or malpractice, or that of any person under his direct supervision and control.

(2) A partner in a registered limited liability partnership is not a proper party to a proceeding by or against a registered limited liability partnership, the object of which is to recover damages arising from the acts, omissions, malpractice, or misconduct unless such partner is personally liable under item (1) of this Subsection (c)

(1) When a person, by words spoken or written or by conduct, represents himself, or consents to another representing him to any one, as a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners, he is liable to any such person to whom such representation has been made, who has, on the faith of such representation, given credit to the actual or apparent partnership, and if he has made such representation or consented to its being made in a public manner he is liable to such person, whether the representation has or had not been made nor communicated to such person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(a) When a partnership liability results, he is liable as though he were an actual member of the partnership.

(b) When no partnership liability results, he is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately.

(2) When a person has been thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual partners, he is an agent of the persons consenting to such representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though he were a partner in fact, with respect to persons who rely upon the representation. Where all the members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results, but in all other cases it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the person consenting to the representation.

SOURCE: CC § 2410.

§ 25309. Liability of Incoming Partner.

A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is liable for all the obligations of the partnership arising before his admission as though he had been a partner when such obligations were incurred, except this liability shall be satisfied only out of partnership property.

RELATION OF PARTNERS TO ONE ANOTHER

§ 25401. Rules Determining Rights and Duties of Partners.

§ 25402. Partnership Books.

§ 25403. Duty of Partners to Render Information.

§ 25404. Partner Accountable as a Fiduciary.

§ 25405. Right to an Account.

§ 25406. Constitution of Partnership Beyond Fixed Term.

§ 25401. Rules Determining Rights and Duties of Partners.

The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:

(a) Each partner shall be repaid his contributions, whether by way of capital or advances to the partnership property, and share equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, and except for liabilities which are chargeable to one partner only under Section 25307(c), are satisfied; and must contribute toward the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to his share in the profits.

(b) The partnership must indemnify every partner in respect to payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by him in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business, or for the preservation of its business or property.

(c) A partner, who in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of the capital which he agreed to contribute, shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(d) A partner shall receive interest on the capital contributed by him only from the date when repayment should be made.

(e) All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(f) No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services in winding up the partnership affairs.

(g) No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners.

(h) Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners; but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without consent of all the partners.

SOURCE: CC § 2412. Subsection (a) amended by P.L. 23-65:5.

§ 25402. Partnership Books.

The partnership books shall be kept, subject to any agreement between the partners, at the principal place of business of the partnership, and every partner shall at all times have access to and may inspect and copy any of them.

SOURCE: CC § 2413.

§ 25403. Duty of Partners to Render Information.

Partners shall render on demand true and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or the legal representative of any deceased partner or partner under legal disability.

SOURCE: CC § 2414.

§ 25404. Partner Accountable as a Fiduciary.

(1) Every partner must account to the partnership for any benefit and hold as trustee for it any profits derived by him without the consent of the other partners from any transaction connected with the formation, conduct, or liquidation of the partnership or from any use by him of its property.

(2) This section applies also to the representatives of a deceased partner engaged in the liquidation of the affairs of the partnership as the personal representatives of the last surviving partner.

SOURCE: CC § 2415.

§ 25405. Right to an Account.

Any partner shall have the right to a formal account as to partnership affairs:

- (a) If he is wrongfully excluded from the partnership business or possession of its property by the copartners;
- (b) If the right exists under the terms of any agreement;
- (c) As provided in § 25404;
- (d) Whenever other circumstances render it just and reasonable.

PROPERTY RIGHTS OF A PARTNER

- § 25501. Extent of Property Rights of a Partner.
- § 25502. Nature of Partner's Right in Specific Partnership Property.
- § 25503. Nature of Partner's Interest in Partnership.
- § 25504. Assignment of Partner's Interest.
- § 25505. Partner's Interest Subject to Charging Order.

§ 25501. Extent of Property Rights of a Partner.

The property rights of a partner are (1) his rights in specific partnership property, (2) his interest in the partnership, and (3) his right to participate in the management.

SOURCE: CC § 2418.

§ 25502. Nature of Partner's Right in Specific Partnership Property.

(1) A partner is co-owner with his partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.

(2) The incidents of his tenancy are such that:

(a) A partner, subject to the provisions of this Chapter and to any agreement between the partners, has an equal right with his partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes, but he has no right to possess such property for any other purpose without the consent of his partners.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(b) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of the rights of all the partners in the same property.

(c) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment, or execution, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the homestead of exemption laws.

(d) On the death of a partner his right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when his right in such property vests in his legal representative. Such surviving partner or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose.

(e) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, courtesy, or allowances to widows, heirs, or next of kin, and is not community property.

SOURCE: CC § 2419.

§ 25503. Nature of Partner's Interest in Partnership.

A partner's interest in the partnership is his share of the profits and surplus, and the same is personal property.

SOURCE: CC § 2420.

§ 25504. Assignment of Partner's Interest.

(1) A conveyance by a partner of his interest in the partnership does not of itself dissolve the partnership, nor, as against the other partners in the absence of agreement, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any information or account of partnership transaction, or to inspect the partnership books; but it merely entitles the assignee to receive in accordance with his contract the profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled.

(2) In case of a dissolution of the partnership, the assignee is entitled to receive his assignor's interest and may require an account from the date only of the last account agreed to by all the partners.

SOURCE: CC § 2421.

§ 25505. Partner's Interest Subject to Charging Order.

On due application to a competent court by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court which entered the judgment, order, or decree, or any other court, may charge the interest of the debtor partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of such judgment debt, with interest thereon; and may then or later appoint a receiver of his share of the profits, and of any other money due or to fall due to him in respect of the partnership, and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries which the debtor partner might have made, or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) The interest charged may be redeemed at any time before foreclosure, or in case of a sale being directed by the court, may be purchased without thereby causing a dissolution:

(a) With separate property, by any one or more of the partners, or

(b) With partnership property, by any one or more of the partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not so charged or sold.

(3) Nothing in this Chapter shall be held to deprive a partner of his right, if any, under the exemption laws, as regards his interest in the partnership.

On dissolution, the partnership is not terminated, but continues until the winding up of partnership affairs is completed.

SOURCE: CC § 2424.

§ 25603. Causes of Dissolution.

Dissolution is caused:

- (1) Without violation of the agreement between the partners:
 - (a) By the termination of the definite term or particular undertaking specified on the agreement;
 - (b) By the express will of any partner when no definite term or particular undertaking is specified;
 - (c) By the express will of all the partners who have not assigned their interests or suffered them to be charged for their separate debts,

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

either before or after the termination of any specified term or particular undertaking;

(d) By the expulsion of any partner from the business bona fide in accordance with such a power conferred by the agreement between the partners.

(2) In contravention of the agreement between the partners, where the circumstances do not permit a dissolution under any provision of this section by the express will of any partner at any time;

(3) By any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the partnership to be carried on or for the members to carry it on in partnership;

(4) By the death of any partner;

(5) By the bankruptcy of any partner or the partnership;

(6) By decree of the court under § 25604 of this Article.

SOURCE: CC § 2425.

§ 25604. Dissolution by Decree of Court.

(1) On application by or for a partner the court shall decree a dissolution whenever:

(a) A partner has been declared a lunatic in any judicial proceeding or is shown to be of unsound mind;

(b) A partner becomes in any other way incapable of performing his part in the partnership contract;

(c) A partner has been guilty of such conduct as tends to affect prejudicially the carrying on of the business;

(d) A partner willfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership agreement, or otherwise so conducts himself in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable to carry out the business in partnership with him;

(e) The business of the partnership can be carried on only at a loss.

(f) Other circumstances render a dissolution equitable.

(2) On the application of a purchaser of a partner's interest under §§ 25504 and 25505 of this Chapter:

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(a) After the termination of the specified term or particular undertaking;

(b) At any time if the partnership was a partnership at will when the interest was assigned or when the charging order was issued.

COMMENT: In the 1970 Code, the punctuation of this and the preceding section differ, although the outline form does not, i.e., both sections use the form of a general statement under a numeral (1) followed by conditions on that statement under small lettered paragraphs (a). The Compiler can find no reason for the difference between the use of semi-colons, commas, or even periods after the lettered paragraphs. Therefore, the Compiler has followed the format of colon after the numbered subsections and semi-colons after the lettered paragraphs.

§ 25605. General Effect of Dissolution on Authority of Partner.

Except so far as may be necessary to wind up partnership affairs or to complete transactions begun but not then finished, dissolution terminates all authority of any partner to act for the partnership:

(1) With respect to the partners,

(a) When the dissolution is not by the act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner; or

(b) When the dissolution is by such act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner in cases where § 25606 so requires;

(2) With respect to persons not partners, as declared in § 25607.

§ 25606. Right of Partner to Contribution From Copartners after Dissolution.

Where the dissolution is caused by the act, death, or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to his copartners for his share of any liability created by any partner acting for the partnership as if the partnership had not been dissolved unless:

(a) the dissolution being by act of any partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution, or

(b) The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy; or § 25607. Power of Partner to Bind Partnership to Third Person After Dissolution.

(1) After dissolution a partner can bind the partnership except as provided in paragraph (3):

(a) By any act appropriate for winding up partnership affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution;

(b) By any transaction which would bind the partnership if dissolution had not taken place; provided, the other party to the transaction:

(i) had extended credit to the partnership prior to the dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the dissolution; or

(ii) Though he had not so extended credit, had nevertheless known of the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of the dissolution, the fact of dissolution had not been publicly posted in the place, or in each place if more than one, at which the partnership business was regularly carried on.

(2) The liability of a partner under paragraph (1b) shall be satisfied out of partnership assets alone when such partner had been prior to dissolution:

(a) Unknown as a partner to the person with whom the contract is made; and

(b) So far unknown and inactive in partnership affairs that the business reputation of the partnership could not be said to have been in any degree due to his connection with it.

(3) The partnership is in no case bound by any act of a partner after dissolution:

(a) Where the partnership is dissolved because it is unlawful to carry on the business, unless the act is appropriate for winding up partnership affairs; or

(b) Where the partner has become bankrupt; or

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION

COURT DECISIONS: Delfin v. Liss, 365 F.2d 74 (1966).

§ 25608. Effect of Dissolution on Partner's Existing Liability.

(1) The dissolution of the partnership does not of itself discharge the existing liability of any partner.

(2) A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between himself, the partnership creditor and the person or partnership continuing the business; and such agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.

(3) Where a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed shall be discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of such obligations.

(4) The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for all obligations of the partnership incurred while he was a partner but subject to the prior payment of his separate debts including those debts for which he is liable under § 25307(c) herein

§ 25610. Rights of Partners to Application of Partnership Property.

(1) When dissolution is caused in any way, except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner, as against his copartners and all persons claiming through them in respect to their interests in the partnership, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities, and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. But if dissolution is caused by expulsion of a partner, bona fide under the partnership agreement, and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under § 25608 paragraph (2), he shall receive in cash only the net amount due him from the partnership.

(2) When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement the rights of the partners shall be as follows:

(a) Each partner who has not caused dissolution wrongfully shall have:

(i) All the rights specified in paragraph (1) of this section;
and

(ii) The right, as against each partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, to damages for breach of the agreement.

(b) The partners who have not caused the dissolution wrongfully, if they all desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, may do so, during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property; provided, they secure the payment by bond approved by the court, or pay to any partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, the value of his interest in the partnership at the dissolution, less any damages recoverable under clause (2)(a)ii of this section, and in like § 25611. Rights where Partnership is Dissolved for Fraud or Misrepresentation.

Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud of misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled:

(a) To a lien on, or right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership property after satisfying the partnership liabilities to third persons for any sum of money paid by him for the purchase of an interest in the partnership and for any capital or advances contributed by him; and

(b) To stand, after all liabilities to third persons have been satisfied, in the place of the creditors of the partnership for any payments made by him in respect of the partnership liabilities; and

(c) To be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the misrepresentation against all debts and liabilities of the partnership.

CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

In settling accounts between the partners after the dissolution, the following rules shall be observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary:

(a) The assets of the partnership are:

(i) The partnership property,

(ii) The contributions of the partners necessary for the payment of all the liabilities specified in clause (b) of this paragraph.

(b) The liabilities of the partnership shall rank in order of payment as follows:

(i) Those owing to creditors other than partners;

(ii) Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits;

(iii) Those owing to partners in respect of capital;

(iv) Those owing to partners in respect of profits.

(c) The assets shall be applied in the order of their declaration in clause (a) of this paragraph to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

(d) Except as provided in § 25307(c), the partners shall contribute, as provided by § 25401(a), the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities; but, if any, but not all, of the partners are insolvent, or, not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liability.

(e) An assignee for the benefit of creditors or any person appointed by the court shall have the right to enforce the contribution specified in clause (d) of this paragraph.

(f) Any partner or his legal representative shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in clause (d) of this paragraph, to the extent of the amount which he has paid in excess of his share of the liability.

(g) The individual property of the deceased partner shall be liable for the contributions specified in clause (d) of this paragraph.

§ 25616. Registered Limited Liability Partnerships.

(a) To become and to continue as a registered limited liability partnership, a partnership shall file with the Department of Revenue and Taxation an application stating the name of the partnership; the address of its principal office; the number of the partners; a brief statement of the business in which the partnership engages; any other matters that the partnership wishes to include; and that the partnership thereby applied for status as a registered limited liability partnership. If the partnership's principal office is not located on Guam, it shall provide the name and address of a registered agent on Guam for service of process.

(1) The application shall be executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute an application.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by a fee which shall be established and collected by the Department of Revenue and Taxation.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 25 PARTNERSHIPS IN GENERAL

(3) The Department of Revenue and Taxation shall register as a registered limited liability partnership any partnership that submits a completed application with the required fee.

(4) A partnership registered under this Section shall pay, in each year following the year in which its application is filed, on a date specified by the Department of Revenue and Taxation, an annual fee of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) for each partner, but in no event shall the fee payable by an LLP in a given year be more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) regardless of the number of partners. Payment of the fee must be accompanied by a notice, on a form provided by the Department of Revenue and Taxation, of the number of partners currently in the partnership and of any material changes in the information contained in the partnership's application for registration.

(5) Registration is effective immediately after the date an application is filed, and remains effective until: (i) It is voluntarily withdrawn by the limited liability partnership filing with the Department of Revenue and Taxation a written withdrawal notice executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal notice; or (ii) 30 days after receipt by the partnership of a notice from the Department of Revenue and Taxation (which notice shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested) that the partnership has failed to make timely payment of the annual fee specified in Subsection (e), unless the fee is paid within such a 30 day period.

(6) The status of a partnership as a registered limited liability partnership, and the liability of the partners thereof, shall not be affected by (i) errors in the information stated in an application under Subsection (1) of this Section or a notice under Subsection (a) of this Section, or (ii) changed after the filing of such an application or notice in the information stated in the application or notice.

(7) The Department of Revenue and Taxation may provide forms for the application under Subsection (a) of this Section or a notice under Subsection (e) of this Section.

(8) A limited liability partnership is a "business" as defined in Section 26101 of Article I of Chapter 26 of Title 11, Guam Code
