

CHAPTER 52
HIRING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

§ 52101. Obligations of Letter of Personal Property.

§ 52102. Expenses.

§ 52103. Extraordinary Expenses.

§ 52101. Obligations of Letter of Personal Property.

One who lets personal property must deliver it to the hirer, secure his quiet enjoyment thereof against all lawful claimants, put it into condition fit for the purpose for which he lets it, and repair all deteriorations thereof not occasioned by the fault of the hirer and not the natural result of its use.

SOURCE: CC § 1955.

§ 52102. Expenses.

A hirer of personal property must bear all such expenses concerning it as might naturally be foreseen to attend it during its use by him. All other expenses must be borne by the letter.

SOURCE: CC § 1956.

§ 52103. Extraordinary Expenses.

If a letter fails to fulfill his obligations, as prescribed by § 52101, the hirer, after giving him notice to do so, if such notice can conveniently be given, may expend any reasonable amount necessary to make good the letter's default, and may recover such amount from him.

SOURCE: CC § 1957.

NOTE: No 1970 Civil Code §§ 1958-1964 existed.

18 GCA BUSINESS STRUCTURE & FUNCTION
CH. 52 HIRING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY