NATURE OF WORK

This is complex professional work involved in the researching, developing, implementing, and managing of an interrelated system of educational and training opportunities designed to meet the professional needs of court employees.

Under the direct supervision of the Administrator of the Courts or his designee, an employee in this class works independently to develop and coordinate the implementation of education programs for judicial employees. The incumbent will be responsible for carrying out high quality continuing education and training programs for the Judiciary of Guam.

MINIMUM KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES AND SKILLS

- Knowledge of education theory and methods, with a specific focus on adult education: curriculum design, instruction design, course assessment and evaluation techniques; the legal system, specifically the courts; research legal subject areas; office methods and procedures; problem solving techniques; communication skills and methods; organization techniques; and project management.
- Knowledge of conducting needs assessment surveys and translates data to determine or measure training needs.
- Knowledge of project management administration and curriculum development methods.
- Skilled in conducting presentations and/or coordinating with internal and external resources for training delivery/presentation.
- Ability to develop, plan, organize and implement program functions and processes.
- Ability to evaluate program outcomes and recommend changes to improve the delivery, efficiency, and effectiveness of education and training programs.
- Ability to maintain database information using windows applications to produce a variety of reports.
- Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing; cooperatively interact and communicate with judicial officers, court executives, managers, professionals, administrative support employees; act in a lead capacity for projects and program areas.

MINIMUM EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING

A. Master's degree in education or related field, plus three (3) years of project and program management experience, and two (2) years of full-time experience teaching and training adults or experience in curriculum development.

B. Any equivalent combination of experience and training which provides the minimum knowledge, abilities and skills for the position.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS PURSUANT TO 4 GCA § 4101 (c)(1)

Applicants must possess a high school diploma or show successful completion of a General Educational Development (GED) Test, or any equivalent of a general education high school program, apprenticeship program or successful completion of a certification program, from a recognized accredited or certified technical institution, in a specialized field required for the job.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

To validate credentials, (e.g., Diploma/G.E.D., Certificate, College Transcript and/or licenses), an original or certified copy must accompany each employment application with the applicant's legal signature. Proof of certification must be provided to the HR Office within five (5) workdays from the date of the eligibility notice. Applicants shall be responsible to provide all required documents for each employment application and failure to provide proof may result in disqualification for employment consideration.

"The Judiciary of Guam is an equal opportunity provider and employer."

RATING AND SELECTION FACTORS	Candidates will be considered and selected based on merit except where a bona fide occupational qualification ("BFOQ") exists, without discrimination based on race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, genetic information, pregnancy, sex (including gender identity, or expression), sexual orientation, ancestry, honorably discharged veteran or military status, or any other protected classification under Federal or Guam EEO laws. Evaluation will be based on the candidate's education, experience and training as evidenced in the submitted application for employment form. A BFOQ is a selective factor, such as sex or age, that is required for a job that would otherwise be considered discrimination if it were not necessary to perform the job in question.
EVALUATION METHOD	Applicants will be rated on a scale between 70.00 and 100.00 percent on the basis of training, education and experience in relation to the minimum requirements of the position. A qualification test is not required to be certified eligible for the position, but the interview may consist of oral and /or written questions.
PROHIBITION PURSUANT TO P.L. 28-98	No person convicted of sex offense under the provision of Chapter 25 of Title 9 GCA, or an offense as defined in Article 2 of Chapter 28, Title 9 GCA in Guam, or an offense in any jurisdiction which includes, at a minimum, all of the elements of said offenses, or who is listed on the Sex Offender Registry shall work in any agency or instrumentality of the government of Guam.
DRUG SCREENING	Applicants selected for employment with the Judiciary of Guam shall undergo and pass a mandatory drug test before being employed. This also applies to employees selected for Testing Designated Positions (TDP). Failure to submit or pass such drug test shall be grounds for rescinding the offer of appointment.
WORK ELIGIBILITY	When offered a position, you will be required to provide proof of identity and eligibility for employment in the United States as a condition of employment.
EMPLOYMENT MEDICAL EXAMINATION	All applicants accepting employment must undergo a medical examination and be declared by a physician as capable of performing the duties of the position within six (6) months from date of hire.
VETERAN'S PREFERENCE	Applicants claiming veteran's preference are required to provide a copy of their DD-214 (military discharge form). Those claiming compensable disability are required to provide a copy of a letter from the Veteran's Administration.
DISABILITY PREFERENCE	Title 4 Guam Code Annotated §4104 provides for five (5) preferential points for applicants who are residents of Guam and are physically or mentally impaired, but are physically and mentally able to perform efficiently and safely the duties of the job being applied for. Applicants claiming points for disability preference must submit a Certification of Disability from the Department of Integrated Services for Individuals with Disabilities, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.
POLICE AND COURT CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS	Non-law enforcement positions: If selected for this position, your selection will be conditional pending submission of a current police and court clearance. Applicant will have ten (10) workdays from the date of the Notification of Selection Letter to submit police and court clearance. The clearances should be issued within thirty (30) days from the submission date of your application. The cost of the clearances is the applicant's responsibility. Law enforcement positions: a current police and court clearance should be issued within thirty (30) days from the submission date of your application. The cost of the clearances is the applicant's responsibility. Failure to submit may disqualify your application from employment consideration.
AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) &amp; EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO)	The Judiciary of Guam complies with the Public Law 24-109 in reference to the provisions and requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Individuals with disabilities requiring special accommodations or assistance should contact Ms. Elaine M.P. Naputi, EEO Officer, at (671) 475-3396 or via email at enaputi@guamcourts.gov prior to any scheduled examinations or interviews. In accordance with the Judiciary's EEOP Utilization Report, as approved by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office for Civil Rights, applicants may obtain a copy of the Utilization Report from the EEO Office upon request.
HOW TO FILE AN EEO COMPLAINT	Applicants or candidates who believe they have been discriminated against based on an EEO Protected Classification, may file a complaint with the Judiciary's EEO Office. A complaint form is available on the Judiciary website at www.guamcourts.org , on the Judiciary's Intranet, or at the Judiciary's EEO Office.
HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY	Interested applicants may call or visit the Human Resources Office at the San Ramon Building, 115 San Ramon St. Hagatna, between 8:00 am – 12:00 pm / 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.
